

We want to be your bond department.

Surety Placement Services is your partner in an ever-changing surety world.

Surety Placement Services specializes in providing specific surety plans that are tailor fit to meet your clients ever-changing surety needs. As a proven leader in the surety industry, SPS has the access, volume and strong relationships with national and regional sureties necessary to place any of your surety requirements.

“We find reasons to write your business,
instead of reasons why not to.”

What makes us different is what gives you the advantage
in the surety industry.

Market Strength

Representing several A-rated sureties nationwide we can issue any class of bond. Whether it's international, “hard to place” or out of the ordinary, we make placing your bonds easy and time efficient by utilizing the different markets we represent.

Expertise

As a proven leader in the surety industry, our expert knowledge allows us to continuously build and adjust our numerous surety programs to meet your clients ever-changing needs. We know that “hard to place” bonds can be a thorn in the side of insurance agencies but we have the authority to issue many bonds no one else can.

Customer Service

Our team of expert surety underwriters is here to service not only you as our client but your client as well. Through our in-house authority and surety relationships, SPS will find reasons to write your business and offer solutions that make sense.

Long-lasting Relationships

SPS is able to place your business with the best fit for your client, both today and for the long term. We are not here to just get the deal done; we are here to work with you and establish an ongoing working program that is going to best meet your clients needs.

Why SPS?

At Surety Placement Services, we continually strive to set ourselves apart from the ordinary placement group. We want to best serve your needs by best serving your clients needs. Whether it's a small contractor or your largest account, we will solve their immediate and long-term surety requirements. Let us be your bond department and make sure your clients are being handled with the level of service you demand.
